

Lincoln High School Mahoe Reserve Project

Links

Leading Cultural Change video – A leadership story about Linda Tame, Principal of Lincoln High School

(<http://www.educationleaders.govt.nz/Culture/Leading-cultural-change/Lincoln-High-School>)

Lincoln ‘Envirotown’ event chance to hear politicians and scientists, 4 July 2006 – a story from Lincoln University about the Minister of Education coming to Lincoln to officially designate it as an envirotown.

(<http://www.lincoln.ac.nz/story14411.html>)

Opening of the Lincoln Envirotown Trust and Sustainability Centre, 8 July 2006 – read David Benson Pope’s speech at the official opening of Lincoln Envirotown Trust (<http://beehive.govt.nz/speech/opening+lincoln+envirotown+trust+and+sustainability+centre>).

Landcare Research Annual Report 2007 – On page 50 of this report, Linda Tame talks about the challenges she sees around environmental sustainability in secondary schools.

(http://www.landcareresearch.co.nz/publications/annualreport_0607/documents/2007_annual_report.pdf)

Mahoe Reserve revegetation project – An advertisement for volunteers to help with Mahoe Reserve project

(http://www.conservationvolunteers.org.nz/projects/view/mahoe_reserve_revegetation_project)

Mahoe Reserve community website – The Mahoe Reserve community website includes plans for the reserve, the vision and a history

(http://lincolnenvirotown.org.nz/Mahoe_Reserve/Home.html)

Map of Lincoln – See where the school and reserve are located

(<http://www.selwyndistrict.co.nz/images/store1327/File/maps/lincoln-2.html>)

Inaugural Blake Environmental Educator announced – Read a media release about how Dr Sue Jarvis won the Sir Peter Blake Environmental Educator Award

(http://www.sirpeterblaketrust.org/trust/news/inaugural_blake_environmental_educator_announced)

